

---

Monday, May 8, 2017

1:00 PM

Please do not revoke net neutrality regulations that have been put into place to protect the free flow of information on the internet.

The ability to communicate is a right of all of us, it should not be sold to the highest bidder.

Do not allow corporations to control the speed at which certain information flows across their infrastructure. this will allow corporations to restrict access to certain companies any information, in favor of their own agenda.